Dear Dr Wilkins

Further to my letter of 21st January regarding the Council's resolution on the electoral register, please find enclosed the acknowledgement I have received from the DCLG, explaining that the correspondence will be transferred to the Cabinet Office.

I will be in touch again when I receive a substantive response. Please also accept this letter as acknowledgement of your letter regarding the Council's resolution on pressures in the NHS, received in my office on 9th March. I will send a substantive response as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely

Dear Ms Abrahams

Oldham Council Resolution – Electoral Register

Thank you for your letter of 21 January to the Department for Communities and local Government.

I have contacted the Cabinet Office and they have agreed to accept responsibility for this correspondence. I have therefore transferred your letter to them, and they will respond to you directly.

Please contact me if you have any further queries concerning this correspondence.

Yours sincerely

ANDREW PEARSON
