The Licensing Act 2003 Interested Party Representation Form

The Licensing Act 2003 (the act) makes local authorities responsible for the licensing of pubs, clubs, theatres, cinemas, restaurants, takeaways and so on. Some premises may apply to extend their hours or add some form of regulated entertainment and this is where interested parties can have their say by making relevant representations and objecting to the proposals.

Interested parties

An interested party is defined by the act as:

- An Elected Member
- A person living in the vicinity;
- A body representing persons living in the vicinity;
- A person involved in business in the vicinity of the premises; or
- A body representing persons involved in such businesses.

The word "vicinity" has not been clearly defined by the act. If you are living or working close enough to a premises and you are to be affected by the activities, we will look at your location to determine if you can be described as 'in the vicinity'.

What are the objectives?

Representations can only be made on the grounds that there may be a breach of the licensing objectives in the act. These are:

- The prevention of crime and disorder;
(Examples of representations relevant to this objective are illegal drugs, sex related activities, violent behaviour, anti-social behaviour, drunkenness, drug dealing, underage selling, and so on.)
- Public safety;
(Examples of representations relevant to this objective are breaches of health and safety laws, accommodation limits, first aid, unauthorised alterations to property and so on.)
- The prevention of public nuisance; and
(Examples of representations relevant to this objective are noise nuisance, noxious smells, anti-social behaviour, litter in the vicinity and so on.)
- The protection of children from harm.
(Examples of representations relevant to this objective are underage selling, sexual activities, access to premises, drugs use and so on.)

What are relevant representations?

"Relevant representations" is the term used in the act for comments including objections on applications, reviews etc.

For the purposes of making a representation by an interested party, a representation must be relevant. For a representation to be relevant it must:

- relate to the effect of the grant of the licence on the promotion of the licensing objectives (stated as above);
- be made by an interested party or responsible authority;
- not have been withdrawn;
- not be 'frivolous' or 'vexatious' or, in the case of a review, 'repetitious' if made by an interested party.

Section 4 – Representation (Objection) Details

/	I object to the application being granted at all
	I object to the application being granted in its current form*

*If you choose this option remember to tell us in the next section what changes you would like to see.

You need to complete the boxes below as fully as possible. If you do not, then the Licensing Sub-Committee may not understand why you have objected.

Please attach supporting documents/further pages as necessary. Please number all extra pages and add the applicant's name and your name to each page.

Try to be as specific as possible and give examples e.g. on 1 February I could hear loud music from the premises between 10pm and 1 am. I am concerned that if the premises open until 2 am this will cause a public nuisance to me and other residents of the street.

To prevent crime and disorder	Please state your reasons: Incidents of anti-social behaviour will break out and disturb nearby residents.
Public safety	Please state your reasons: If granted, the application to convert the existing car park would make worse the current difficulty of visitors finding suitable car parking spaces, resulting in congestion at a busy junction in the centre of the village. Public safety would therefore be seriously compromised.

To prevent public nuisance	Please state your reasons: The considerable expansion of outdoor seating combined with an additional bar servery will create a permanent public nuisance as a result of additional noise being created and going on late into the night. Inevitably arguments and anti-social behaviour will exacerbate this nuisance. It is understood that complaints have already been made by local residents as the car park has been operating as a part-time outdoor bar and café/restaurant, apparently without planning permission.
The protection of children from harm	Please state your reasons: Children in the village are likely to suffer harm through the traffic congestion created by difficulties in car parking, with frustrated drivers searching for suitable car parking spaces.

Please give any suggested conditions that could be added to the licence to remedy the cause of your representations, or other suggestions you would like the Licensing Sub-Committee to take into account.

I strongly object to this application on behalf of residents in the vicinity of King William IV public house in Chew Valley Road. I think the applicant should have sought planning permission first.

Signed.....

M. J. Bingham
