

To whom it may concern,

I am writing as a character witness for Ian Barkley.

I have worked in collaboration with Ian for many years now and I have always found him to be very professional, friendly, and respectful. He is always happy to share his expertise and knowledge. It has never been too much trouble for Ian to help when myself or my colleagues have asked him for help, he goes above and beyond.

We most recently spent several hours working closely to solve a massive backlog of issues with unpaid invoices, dating back over several years. We worked through these offering and taking feedback from each other, to get to a resolution.

My opinion of Ian is that he is an asset to the organisation, because without his help and expertise, we certainly would have struggled to resolve these issues.

Yours Faithfully,

Sharon Bennett
