

Report to CABINET

Youth Justice Service Extension to contract from 1st April 2024

Portfolio Holder:

Cllr. Shaid Mushtaq, Children and Young People

Officer Contact: Matthew Bulmer, Director for Education, Skills and Early Years

Report Author: Laura Farnworth Children's Commissioning Strategic Manager

11th December 2023

Reason for Decision

The current Youth Justice Service (YJS) Contract ends on 31st March 2024. The contract is currently held by Positive Steps. Approval is sought to extend the current arrangements for a period of six months from 1st April 2024 to 30th September 2024. This will enable Oldham Council and its partners to continue to fulfil their statutory duties and meet the requirements of the Youth Justice Board (YJB).

Recommendations

The current contract arrangements with Positive Steps are extended for a period of six months up to 30th September 2024 within the funding envelope awarded by YJB.

Youth Justice Services Extension to Contract from 1st April 2024

1 Background

- 1.1 The Youth Justice Service in Oldham is currently delivered by Positive Steps, the contract is due to end on 31st March 2024. The current contract is performing well and meeting outcomes which are annually agreed with the YJB and the overall management board. At its last inspection, the service was rated Good by Ofsted.
- 1.2 The provider is fully aware of current thinking relating to possible delivery options from 2024 onwards.
- 1.3 Options regarding the future delivery of the YJS have been discussed and considered.
- 1.4 The service is regarded as high performing and is a statutory duty. The extension being sought would provide a period of stability for service delivery. If approval is given to the extension, this would avoid possible gaps in statutory service delivery affecting some of our most vulnerable and at-risk young people.
- 1.5 As part of this process, the Youth Justice Board, Management Board and other key stakeholders would be consulted on future delivery models from 1st October 2024.
