Objections to Proposed Prohibition of Waiting – Sandy Lane, Dobcross

Exempt/Confidential Report		No
Key Decision <sup>1</sup>		No

Decision (s) <sup>2</sup>

That in accordance with the recommendation of the Highway Regulation Committee of 26 September 2024, the objections be dismissed and the amended proposal be introduced as shown on the amended plan at Appendix 2 of the report considered by the Committee and as detailed in the Schedule below, namely on the north-west side of Sandy Lane outside number 20, opposite number 5 and to the south west of the old church entrance, a total reduction of 56 metres.

Reasons for the decision(s)<sup>3</sup>

The Highway Regulation Committee considered a report regarding objections received to proposed waiting restrictions at Sandy Lane, Dobcross. A report recommending the introduction of prohibition of waiting restrictions on Sandy Lane, Dobcross, was approved under delegated powers on 22 December 2023. The proposal was subsequently advertised, and thirteen objections were received along with one supporting letter.

Highway Regulation Committee on 18 July 2024 considered the objections and resolved that consideration be deferred to the next meeting and asked officers to meet with Ward Members with a view to relaxing the length of the proposed restrictions. A site meeting had taken place and a revised proposal plan had been drafted which was supported by Ward Members. The amended proposal maintained the majority of on-street spaces whilst also protecting the two main pinch
