Thanks for bringing this matter to our attention. I have spoken with Annette and asked her to send her report as stated below my write up.

Kindly consider that we've owned the pub for over a decade and nothing of this incident has ever occurred.

Anglers Arms is currently the oldest pub in Failsworth with a long historical record of being a family pub. I've met and heard stories of customers in their older ages being christened in the pub. Customers of 3 generations still patronizing the pub. Pub historians and lovers coming from places of far to patronize the pub.

We are hereby appealing that you allow us to keep the tradition going and not let our customers and staff down. We will always do all that's required to abide by license terms.

This incident is something that could have happened in any pub or places of interest but it should not be used as a basis of license withdrawal. We will learn from it and continue to improve in our services.
