Purpose

The purpose of the William Taylor Hague Trust is to ensure that the Hollies building, which is now derelict, and the land it stands in, are sold and the proceeds of sale are used in a manner consistent with the William Taylor Hague Trust and the Charities Commission. In broad terms the trust document stipulates that that proceeds of sale must be used to promote the health and wellbeing of people in Oldham, and traditionally the building was used as a centre for people with mental ill health.

Benefits to Council

When the site is sold, some of the money will be in respect of the land owned by the Council. The rest of it will be allocated to project to benefit the health and welfare of the people of Oldham. The Trustees have indicated that they are likely to choose projects relating to dementia, based on advice received from those involved in delivering dementia services in Oldham.

Commitment

There are no set dates or times for meetings. Meeting dates are set to ensure that there is sufficient oversight and progress with the sale of the Hollies site. Once the sale is complete the group will then meet to allocate the proceeds of sale. Once the money is allocated the William Hague Trust will then need to consider what future oversight, if any, it wants to have over the projects it has funded.

Purpose The fund is made up of 2 trusts re Archer & Marjorie Tate fund and are awarded to students who live in Oldham to develop their musical skills, either within the borough of Oldham or at a full time Music Conservatories or other full time higher education establishments. These awards are made to assist with the costs associated with students intending on pursuing a career in music.
Benefits to Council The fund was given to the Council to help students and their musical aspirations and has been going for quite a few years. The costs associated with pursuing a career in music are very high and this award does make a difference to the students who apply. The interest it accumulates currently is not sufficient to keep the balance topped up and at some point in the future, it is anticipated that the monies will reduce so that no further awards will be able to be paid.
